

Public Notice

Public Toilets

We have now been allowed to open the public toilets to visitors. However please be aware the toilet will only be open during service times and will remain closed in the evening and during the weekend. Please ensure that you use the hand washing facilities provided before leaving the toilet. Only one person is allowed in the building where the toilet is located at any one time.

Book of Remembrance and Hall of Remembrance

The Book of Remembrance room is now open for members of the public to view the book. The electronic book will remain isolated until further notice. The Hall of Remembrance Room has also been opened. As above only one person is allowed in the buildings at any one time.
